To: Whom It May Concern

It is our pleasure to write this letter of commendation for Ms Lynn Wong Yuqing. Lynn was engaged by our organisation, Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations (SFCCA), as the project manager for the exhibition titled "New World, New Life" (in Chinese: 落地生根, 开拓新家园).

The 5-month long exhibition is curated by SFCCA to offer a realistic glimpse of the perils early settlers had to endure on their journey to Singapore, as well as to relive the collective memories of Singaporeans who lived through the early tumultuous years. Supported by Lee Kuan Yew Fund for Bilingualism, Singapore Chinese Cultural Centre, Committee to Promote Chinese Language Learning and Singapore Bicentennial Office, the exhibition is opened to public from 18 November 2018 till 28 April 2019.

From ideation to execution of the exhibition, Lynn has proven her ability by taking up the roles of a researcher, curator and chief student docent trainer, assisting our team in putting a successful exhibition. In particular, we would like to commend her for weaving an engaging narrative script for the student docents that greatly aids in creating an immersive experience for visitors. We received compliments from schools, as well as visitors of a diverse profile, including that of distinguished guests like President Halimah Yacob and Minister Ong Ye Kung.

The amount of effort that Lynn had dedicated to this project is impressive and we would like to recognise her for a job well-done.

Yours faithfully,

Mark Mah
